MACMILLAN

It is 4th May, 1699. The Antelope is going to the Far East.

My name's Lemuel Gulliver.
I'm a ship's doctor. I like travelling. I'm going to the East Indies.

One night the sea is rough.

What's wrong?

Help!

It's a storm!

There are a lot of waves. The ship and the other men disappear under the water. Gulliver swims and swims.

Finally, Gulliver arrives at a beach. He cannot see any houses. He is very tired and he goes to sleep.

Where am I? What's wrong?
I can't move my arms! I can't move my legs! I can't move my head!

There is something on Gulliver's hand.
It is moving up his arm.

Gulliver opens his eyes. He sees a very little man.

The man is about 15 centimetres tall. He is looking at Gulliver. Gulliver is very surprised.

Gulliver says 'Hello' to the little man. The little man runs away!

Hello!
